

Section P: How to View Your Military Evaluations in Your Official Military Personnel File (OMPF)

Purpose: Provide individual Soldiers information on where to find their online OMPF and what to look for when looking at their military evaluations.

Need: Changes in the Army's evaluation system have also changed:

- online sites (particularly for Soldiers in Army Reserves),
- some policy (pertaining to AER,)
- and revealed a need for knowledge (location of OMPF for starters.)

Available and Related Training for S1/HR managers:

- Using IWRS – how and why (look for IWRS Users Guide, word document)

This is what you will see after entering the right information (AKO logon) and SSN to get into your OMPF. You can tab through and click on all the different elements to view all the portions and documents in their OMPF.

Answers to Common Questions:

- The (number) shows the number of documents under the category listed.
- To view actual documents, click on the (+) sign. (example next slide).
- Effective dates for military evaluations are the THRU dates on the reports.
- Yes, your photo should be visible to you under DA Photograph folder.
- Your restricted folder is accessible by very few people; you might find "masked" OER: LT OER once promoted to CPT and WO1 OER once

Example: User has clicked on the (+) to be able to view each of the 25 individual Military evaluations. User can click on (-) to collapse list to clean up the computer screen before doing other work with other documents.

User Actions:

Check the THRU dates (under effective dates) to make sure all evaluations are present in your OMPF. If any OER are missing and you know a report exists talk to unit or send an email asking for help (with missing THRU date) to tapcmse@conus.army.mil It might be at HQDA level but needs correction. For missing NCOER: talk to unit.

An alternative way to view an OMPF.

Enter the Services section for either OFFICER or ENLISTED and select the appropriate component.

Example: Enlisted user selected Active Component.

For USAR users:

The DOCUMENTS folder here will take you to your OMPF where you can view all documents in your OMPF. Evaluations are included also contained in the DOCUMENTS folder. Evaluations are added to the OMPF once completed at HQDA level processing.

A (slightly misnamed) EVALUATIONS folder here takes you to IWRS. IWRS is an online application with administrative information on evaluations. It reflects all OER information now and after Mar 08 will reflect all OER & NCOER (for RA & USAR) information.

Individual officers might use IWRS to check the status of an OER as it processes at HQDA level. An OER will not be visible in your OMPF until completed; however, it can be tracked while processing at HQDA using IWRS. HR managers have many uses for IWRS.
